MANAGER NOTES

LEANNE DUFFY

Good Afternoon and a very warm welcome to the management, players, officials and fans of Wolves

It's been a busy summer for our opponents who with Dan leading them will be the team to watch this season in my opinion as they push for the league and promotion.

Our focus this pre season has been a little quieter in comparison as we concentrated on developing our squad with a some chosen additions.

We have welcomed; Liz Hobson as our No.1, Faye Coulthard who joins us from Blackburn and will give us a different feel in midfield, Chloe Fisher who returns to the club after a very successful spell in 2019 and lastly Jess Brady, an exiting attacking midfielder who joins us on a dual signing from Everton.

Whilst not new faces we are also excited to add Emily Cole and Lucy Crook to our squad again this season after their spells on a dual registration last season

We know today's challenge won't be easy. Our opponents will test us, and that's exactly how it should be at this level.

Today is also the day we say good bye to Sundays at Jericho which has been our home for 5 seasons. There has been so many memorable games here that it's difficult to list them all but it will forever be remembered for our iconic title winning celebrations and some absolute belter goals.

Thanks for your continued support, hope you enjoyed the game!

Duff

This weekend feels like the end of an era, as Liverpool Feds 1st team play their final game at Jericho Lane vs Wolves.

It has been our home for several years and without doubt it is where we experienced our greatest achievement when we were promoted to Tier 3.

It is here on this astro, which we have made our home, we have performed at our highest level and we have witnessed some of our greatest and proudest moments in Feds history.

Jericho Lane will always remain a special place for the Feds and will continue to be the home for our reserves, development and junior teams.

We would love to thank everyone involved in making Jericho feel like 'Home'. Especially Jim and South Liverpool who have kept the ground up to standard.

Bill

WOLVERHAMPTON WANDERERS

Following half a century of highs and lows for the women's team since its formation in 1975, this season sees significant additions to both the playing squad and management personnel as Dan McNamara's side looks to go one better than last term's second place finish.

Since agonisingly missing out on promotion in 2021/22 through a play-off defeat by Southampton, Wolves have twice had to settle for the runners-up spot in the FA WNL Northern Premier Division.

The current campaign is the 51st in the club's history since beginning as Heathfield Rovers, playing in the West Midlands League second division, later becoming Wolverhampton & Wednesbury Tube and then Wolverhampton Ladies before taking the name Wolverhampton Wanderers in 1993.

That final name switch was a good omen as the 1993/94 season saw them promoted to the Premier League.

LAST 3 SEASONS

2nd - 24/25

4th - 23/24

2nd - 22/23

In a landmark move in the 2008/09 season the women's section was taken on board by Wolverhampton Wanderers FC as part of Wolves Community Trust.

At junior level the club was awarded a new FA Girls' Regional Talent Club licence in 2016, supporting the identification and development of players with elite potential as part of the England Talent Pathway.

Current squad members Lily Simkin and new signing Louanne Worsey have both played for England at youth level, while Sareet Binning has captained England's Under-16 side and Ania Denham has represented Wales at Under-19 level.

And as the women's team now looks to produce a 2025/26 campaign to top their achievements of recent seasons, they are doing so with Telford United's impressive, 5,500 crowd capacity SEAH Stadium as their home ground.
