COACHES NOTES

LEWIS WOODCOCK

Welcome to everyone attending this afternoon and to those travelling down from Hull.

It has been a long time since we last played in the league so the girls are really looking forward to getting back out there and start the second half of the season in strong fashion.

Last weeks County Cup game against Ashton was a good opportunity to get some minutes into the legs and try a few things that we have been working on over the break. It's always good for confidence of the girls to find the back of the net too and get used to scoring again.

Looking forward to Hull we know the challenges that we will face as they're a strong, physical team and have been going well this season. They're always well organised and competitive so we have to be ready for it but are confident if we play our game we can get the desired result come the end of the 90 mins.

Finally I'd like to welcome our 2 recruits we have signed over the break. Helen Seed joining on loan from Burnley and Sienna Wareing on a dual registration from Manchester United. Helen brings great experience and leadership to the back line which and has shown how valuable those traits can be already.

Sienna is a really exciting young player, we were impressed with her when we played in pre season so are really happy to get her in now and see her quality on the pitch.

Thanks for all the support as always and hopefully see as many of you as possible to support the team in our first league game of the new year.

WELCOME

HULL CITY

Hull City Women were reformed in 2015 following a period without senior women's football representation at the club. Since then, they have progressed through the English women's football pyramid, competing across regional and national divisions as part of the FA's structured league system. The club has undergone several changes in league status and squad composition during its development, reflecting the wider challenges and evolution of the women's game.

Hull City Women continue to operate as part of the club's wider football structure, contributing to the growth of women's football in East Yorkshire.
